

Press Release – Jul 12nd 2023

Dear customers,

Linework announces the opening of its trading department and gives an overview of the following steps regarding the development of LWC token and of Linework Group.

Linework has nominated the head of trading, in the person of ELIA BELLONI, that it will be in charge of the operational management between El Salvador and Dubai.

Implementing the strategies for liquidity management to support the organic growth of the LWC token is the main goal of current operation. consequently, Linework has invested in the creation of a Trading Department with the purpose of protect, manage and monitor the Company assets and provide analysis of the main digital assets of the market in order to support the community and give value added to the users.

Trading Department is in close synergy with Risk Department in order to insure top transparency towards Linework users, protecting them from any possible risk.

As far as it concerns the business development, our Company vision aims to the quotation on the most relevant global Exchange. Our strategic and legal teams are evaluating possible synergies on the stock exchanges in Singapore and United States of America, with the purpose of the opening of an IEO (Initial Exchange Offering) with Kucoin Exchange in Singapore (one of the most active stock exchanges in the world) and an IPO (Initial Public Offering) with Singapore and New York (Nasdaq) Exchanges.

Our Company vision will bring the expansion of the trading department in the near future, with specific attention to:

- Research & Development in IT department: algorithms and artificial intelligence models.
- Management of company human resources: this will be supported by high-tech tools that will allow, thanks to dashboards and proper control computer systems, a fast comprehension and analysis for the users.

Linework will only be publishing the market analysis and the developments related to LWC token and digital markets on its own Social Media Channel Spiral©.

To keep you all up to date with the upcoming developments, Linework will post a weekly report in the section Press Releases of the Corporate Website.